

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 12:49 PM
To: McClure, Kaitlyn (Hoeven)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Subject: RE: Somalia

NSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT
2011 APR 25 AM 9:19

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Thanks so much, Kaitlyn. We'll see you tomorrow.

From: McClure, Kaitlyn (Hoeven) [mailto:Kaitlyn_McClure@hoeven.senate.gov]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 12:39 PM
To: Sean King
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME
Subject: RE: Somalia

Hi Sean,

I apologize for the delay, this week is turning out to be very busy over here.

Tomorrow at 5pm would work out just fine. We are located in the Dirksen Senate Office Building, G-11.

Thank you for your patience!

Kaitlyn

Kaitlyn McClure
Legislative Assistant
U.S. Senator John Hoeven (R-ND)
202.224.2551 (p)
202.224.7999 (f)

NSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT
2011 APR 25 AM 9:19

From: Sean King [mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 12:41 PM
To: McClure, Kaitlyn (Hoeven)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME
Subject: RE: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

p.s. We're flexible around your schedule, but tomorrow at 5pm would work great for us. Thanks, Kaitlyn.

From: Sean King
Sent: Monday, April 04, 2011 11:51 AM
To: 'Kaitlyn_McClure@hoeven.senate.gov'
Cc: 'JOHN ZAGAME'
Subject: RE: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Ms. McClure,

As per below, is there a time this Wednesday, or even Thursday, when we can introduce you to Ambassador Arman?

As I told Don Larson, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

Thanks so much in advance for your kind consideration.

GO SIOUX,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com
101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA
☎ +1 (212) 883-5608 | 📠 +1 (212) 883-5643 | ✉ sking@parkstrategies.com
Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.
☎ +886 (2) 7711-1020 | 📠 +886 (2) 7711-7288

From: Larson, Don (Hoeven) [mailto:Don_Larson@hoeven.senate.gov]
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 7:36 PM
To: Sean King
Subject: RE: Somalia

Sean,

Kaitlyn McClure will be reaching out to you to set up a meeting.

Thanks,

Don Larson

From: Sean King [mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com]
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 1:04 PM
To: Larson, Don (Hoeven)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Subject: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Don,

Hi, how are you? Thanks again for your last time last month on Taiwan. Just so you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

As I'm sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself (please see the Prime Minister's bio attached), are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Next Wednesday, April 6th, my colleague, John Zagame, and I will be in Washington, D.C. with Abukar Arman. Ambassador Arman is Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States. Before accepting his current position, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

Could John and I possibly stop by next Wednesday, April 6th to briefly introduce the appropriate staff member in your office to Ambassador Arman? I'm sure Senator Hoeven can benefit from what you and/or your colleague(s) might be able to tell him after a meeting with Ambassador Arman. Thanks for any time your office can afford us, and thanks in advance for your kind consideration. We hope to spend some time with you soon.

Best wishes,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com

101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA

☎ +1 (212) 883-5608 | 📠 +1 (212) 883-5643 | ✉ sking@parkstrategies.com

Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.

☎ +886 (2) 7711-1020 | 📠 +886 (2) 7711-7288

Valerie Levin

From: Valerie Levin
Sent: Wednesday, April 06, 2011 11:19 AM
To: Valerie Levin
Subject: Somalia Meeting

From: jzagameny@msn.com
To: elana_broitman@gillibrand.senate.gov
Subject: RE: Somalia Meeting
Date: Tue, 5 Apr 2011 11:13:49 -0400

We will be there. Thanks again.

NSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT
2011 APR 25 AM 9:19

From: Elana Broitman@gillibrand.senate.gov
To: jzagameny@msn.com
Date: Tue, 5 Apr 2011 11:08:03 -0400
Subject: Re: Somalia Meeting

Noon works

From: JOHN ZAGAME [<mailto:jzagameny@msn.com>]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 11:02 AM
To: Broitman, Elana (Gillibrand)
Subject: RE: Somalia Meeting

We can come by tomorrow anywhere from 11AM to 1PM or 3PM to end of day, whichever slot would work best for you. We have a 2PM with Sen. Kerry's Foreign Relations Committee staff.
Thanks.

From: Elana Broitman@gillibrand.senate.gov
To: jzagameny@msn.com
Date: Tue, 5 Apr 2011 10:58:44 -0400
Subject: Re: Somalia Meeting

I would do my best - what day and time are you seeking?

From: JOHN ZAGAME [<mailto:jzagameny@msn.com>]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 10:47 AM
To: Broitman, Elana (Gillibrand)
Subject: FW: Somalia Meeting

Elana --

This is reference to your e-mail below to Joel Giambra. Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia. I am in DC this week with Somalia's US Envoy Abukar Arman and we would like to take a few minutes of your time to brief you on progress being made by the government of Somalia against the Al Shabab extremist organization and improvements the Transitional Federal Government (TFG) is making to restore order to that war torn nation.

The Somali Government is led by a former Buffalo NY resident, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed, who is serving as Prime Minister of the TFG. He has brought back to Somalia with him a number of US Somali's who are literally rebuilding their nation.

I know time is precious this week on Capitol Hill, but if you can manage to meet with us it would be most appreciated.

Regards,

John Zagame

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C

> From: jlettieri@parkstrategies.com
> To: jzagameny@msn.com
> Date: Tue, 5 Apr 2011 10:42:29 -0400
> Subject: FW: Somalia >

>
>
>

> -----Original Message-----

> From: Joann Lettieri
> Sent: Monday, April 04, 2011 9:23 AM
> To: jzagameny@msn.com
> Cc: Joel Giambra
> Subject: FW: Somalia Meeting

>

> Good Morning John,
> Below is an email from Elana Broitman from Senator Gillibrand's Office. You can email her directly to make arrangements to meet in Washington. Her email address is Elana_Broitman@gillibrand.senate.gov.

> Thanks-Joann

>

> -----Original Message-----

> From: Broitman, Elana (Gillibrand) [mailto:Elana_Broitman@gillibrand.senate.gov]
> Sent: Monday, April 04, 2011 9:19 AM
> To: Joel Giambra
> Cc: Joann Lettieri
> Subject: Re: Somalia Meeting

>

> It is easiest to schedule by email as I am rarely at my desk

>

> ----- Original Message -----

> From: Joel Giambra [<mailto:jgiambra@parkstrategies.com>]

> Sent: Monday, April 04, 2011 09:22 AM

> To: Broitman, Elana (Gillibrand)

> Cc: Joann Lettieri <jlettieri@parkstrategies.com>

> Subject: Somalia Meeting

>

> This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C

>

> Good Morning Elana,

> Sam Hoyt provided me with your email address to arrange a meeting with you and John Zagame, from our NY Park Strategies Office, to discuss Somalia. Can you give me your number so I can have John contact you directly to make the arrangements? Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

> Thank you for your time,

> Joel Giambra

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 5:41 PM
To: Bland, Amber (Barrasso)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME
Subject: RE: (Sen. Barrasso) Somalia

Importance: High

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Amber,

Thanks so much for your reply. I won't actually arrive in D.C. until 3pm tomorrow. But my colleague, John Zagame, will be escorting Ambassador Arman around Capitol Hill before that. By copy of this e-mail, can I ask that John contact you directly if he can make something work around that time? I know that Ambassador Arman has another Senate side appointment at 12noon. But hopefully, he and John can make something happen. If not this time, then next time. John, Amber's in 307 Dirksen SOB, tel. (202) 224-6441.

Thanks again, Amber (really!).

Best wishes,
Sean King

From: Bland, Amber (Barrasso) [mailto:Amber_Bland@Barrasso.senate.gov]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 5:16 PM
To: Sean King
Subject: RE: Somalia

Hi Sean,

Thank you for reaching out to me about Somalia. As I am sure you know, things on the hill are extremely busy this week. I do have a little time available at noon tomorrow. Does that work with your schedule?

Talk to you soon,
Amber

From: Sean King [<mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com>]
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 12:39 PM
To: Bland, Amber (Barrasso)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Subject: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Amber,

Hi, how are you? Thanks again for your last time last month on Taiwan. Just so you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

As I'm sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself (please see the Prime Minister's bio attached), are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Next Wednesday, April 6th, my colleague, John Zagame, and I will be in Washington, D.C. with Abukar Arman. Ambassador Arman is Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States. Before accepting his current position, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

Could John and I possibly stop by next Wednesday, April 6th to briefly introduce you to Ambassador Arman? As a member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, I'm sure Senator Barrasso can benefit from what you might be able to tell him after you meet Ambassador Arman. Thanks for any time you can afford us, and thanks in advance for your kind consideration. We hope to spend some time with you soon.

Best wishes,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com

101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA

☎ +1 (212) 883-5608 | 📠 +1 (212) 883-5643 | ✉ sking@parkstrategies.com

Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.

☎ +886 (2) 7711-1020 | 📠 +886 (2) 7711-7288

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 6:19 PM
To: Bland, Amber (Barrasso)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME
Subject: RE: (Sen. Barrasso) Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

p.s. John and Ambassador Arman will also be in D.C. on Thursday, although I won't be.

From: Sean King
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 5:41 PM
To: 'Bland, Amber (Barrasso)'
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME
Subject: RE: (Sen. Barrasso) Somalia
Importance: High

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Amber,

Thanks so much for your reply. I won't actually arrive in D.C. until 3pm tomorrow. But my colleague, John Zagame, will be escorting Ambassador Arman around Capitol Hill before that. By copy of this e-mail, can I ask that John contact you directly if he can make something work around that time? I know that Ambassador Arman has another Senate side appointment at 12noon. But hopefully, he and John can make something happen. If not this time, then next time. John, Amber's in 307 Dirksen SOB, tel. (202) 224-6441.

Thanks again, Amber (really!).

Best wishes,
Sean King

From: Bland, Amber (Barrasso) [mailto:Amber_Bland@Barrasso.senate.gov]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 5:16 PM
To: Sean King
Subject: RE: Somalia

Hi Sean,
Thank you for reaching out to me about Somalia. As I am sure you know, things on the hill are extremely busy this week. I do have a little time available at noon tomorrow. Does that work with your schedule?
Talk to you soon,
Amber

From: Sean King [<mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com>]
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 12:39 PM
To: Bland, Amber (Barrasso)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Subject: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Amber,

Hi, how are you? Thanks again for your last time last month on Taiwan. Just so you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

As I'm sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself (please see the Prime Minister's bio attached), are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Next Wednesday, April 6th, my colleague, John Zagame, and I will be in Washington, D.C. with Abukar Arman. Ambassador Arman is Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States. Before accepting his current position, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

Could John and I possibly stop by next Wednesday, April 6th to briefly introduce you to Ambassador Arman? As a member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, I'm sure Senator Barrasso can benefit from what you might be able to tell him after you meet Ambassador Arman. Thanks for any time you can afford us, and thanks in advance for your kind consideration. We hope to spend some time with you soon.

Best wishes,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com
101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA
☎ +1 (212) 883-5608 | 📠 +1 (212) 883-5643 | ✉ sking@parkstrategies.com
Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.
☎ +886 (2) 7711-1020 | 📠 +886 (2) 7711-7288

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Wednesday, April 06, 2011 8:46 AM
To: Valerie Levin
Subject: Fw: (Sen. Barrasso) Somalia

----- Original Message -----

From: jzagameny@msn.com <jzagameny@msn.com>
To: Bland, Amber (Barrasso) <Amber.Bland@Barrasso.senate.gov>
Cc: Sean King
Sent: Wed Apr 06 08:37:19 2011
Subject: Re: (Sen. Barrasso) Somalia

Amber - great - we'll be there.

Sent from my Verizon Wireless BlackBerry

From: "Bland, Amber (Barrasso)" <Amber.Bland@Barrasso.senate.gov>
Date: Wed, 6 Apr 2011 08:28:40 -0400
To: 'jzagameny@msn.com' <jzagameny@msn.com>
Subject: Re: (Sen. Barrasso) Somalia

Hi Jeremy,
Meeting at one is fine. I can probably do 15 minutes.
-Amber

Amber S. Bland
Legislative Assistant
U.S. Senator John Barrasso
Washington, D.C.

From: jzagameny@msn.com [<mailto:jzagameny@msn.com>]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 06:26 PM
To: Sean King <sking@parkstrategies.com>; Bland, Amber (Barrasso)
Subject: Re: (Sen. Barrasso) Somalia

Amber -- Is there any way you can squeeze us in around 1PM? We have meetings at noon & 2PM but I'd like stop by in between if you can spare even 15 minutes.

Sent from my Verizon Wireless BlackBerry

From: Sean King <sking@parkstrategies.com>
Date: Tue, 5 Apr 2011 17:41:11 -0400
To: Bland, Amber (Barrasso) <Amber.Bland@Barrasso.senate.gov>
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME <jzagameny@msn.com>
Subject: RE: (Sen. Barrasso) Somalia

2011 APR 25 AM 9:19
HSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Amber,

Thanks so much for your reply. I won't actually arrive in D.C. until 3pm tomorrow. But my colleague, John Zagame, will be escorting Ambassador Arman around Capitol Hill before that. By copy of this e-mail, can I ask that John contact you directly if he can make something work around that time? I know that Ambassador Arman has another Senate side appointment at 12noon. But hopefully, he and John can make something happen. If not this time, then next time. John, Amber's in 307 Dirksen SOB, tel. (202) 224-6441.

Thanks again, Amber (really!).

Best wishes,

Sean King

From: Bland, Amber (Barrasso) [<mailto:Amber.Bland@Barrasso.senate.gov>]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 5:16 PM
To: Sean King
Subject: RE: Somalia

Hi Sean,

Thank you for reaching out to me about Somalia. As I am sure you know, things on the hill are extremely busy this week. I do have a little time available at noon tomorrow. Does that work with your schedule?

Talk to you soon,

Amber

From: Sean King [<mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com>]
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 12:39 PM
To: Bland, Amber (Barrasso)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Subject: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Amber,

Hi, how are you? Thanks again for your last time last month on Taiwan. Just so you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

As I'm sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself (please see the Prime Minister's bio attached), are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Next Wednesday, April 6th, my colleague, John Zagame, and I will be in Washington, D.C. with Abukar Arman. Ambassador Arman is Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States. Before accepting his current position, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

Could John and I possibly stop by next Wednesday, April 6th to briefly introduce you to Ambassador Arman? As a member of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, I'm sure Senator Barrasso can benefit from what you might be able to tell him after you meet Ambassador Arman. Thanks for any time you can afford us, and thanks in advance for your kind consideration. We hope to spend some time with you soon.

Best wishes,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com

101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA

(+1 (212) 883-5608|+1 (212) 883-5643 |*sking@parkstrategies.com
<mailto:%7C*sking@parkstrategies.com>

Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.

(+886 (2) 7711-1020|+886 (2) 7711-7288

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Wednesday, April 06, 2011 4:14 PM
To: 'Kaitlyn_McClure@hoeven.senate.gov'
Cc: 'jzagameny@msn.com'; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Subject: Re: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.
Dear Kaitlyn,

We're running ahead of schedule and are available earlier if you are. If not, we'll just see you at 5pm as planned.

Thanks,
Sean King

----- Original Message -----

From: Sean King
To: McClure, Kaitlyn (Hoeven) <Kaitlyn_McClure@hoeven.senate.gov>
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME <jzagameny@msn.com>; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Sent: Tue Apr 05 12:48:45 2011
Subject: RE: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Thanks so much, Kaitlyn. We'll see you tomorrow.

From: McClure, Kaitlyn (Hoeven) [mailto:Kaitlyn_McClure@hoeven.senate.gov]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 12:39 PM
To: Sean King
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME
Subject: RE: Somalia

Hi Sean,

I apologize for the delay, this week is turning out to be very busy over here.

Tomorrow at 5pm would work out just fine. We are located in the Dirksen Senate Office Building, G-11.

Thank you for your patience!

NSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT
2011 APR 20 AM 9:19

Kaitlyn

Kaitlyn McClure

Legislative Assistant

U.S. Senator John Hoeven (R-ND)

202.224.2551 (p)

202.224.7999 (f)

From: Sean King [mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com]
Sent: Tuesday, April 05, 2011 12:41 PM
To: McClure, Kaitlyn (Hoeven)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME
Subject: RE: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

p.s. We're flexible around your schedule, but tomorrow at 5pm would work great for us. Thanks, Kaitlyn.

From: Sean King
Sent: Monday, April 04, 2011 11:51 AM
To: 'Kaitlyn_McClure@hoeven.senate.gov'
Cc: 'JOHN ZAGAME'
Subject: RE: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Ms. McClure,

As per below, is there a time this Wednesday, or even Thursday, when we can introduce you to Ambassador Arman?

As I told Don Larson, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

Thanks so much in advance for your kind consideration.

GO SIOUX,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com

101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA

(+1 (212) 883-5608|7+1 (212) 883-5643 |*sking@parkstrategies.com
<mailto:%7C*sking@parkstrategies.com>

Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.

(+886 (2) 7711-1020|7+886 (2) 7711-7288

From: Larson, Don (Hoeven) [mailto:Don_Larson@hoeven.senate.gov]

Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 7:36 PM

To: Sean King

Subject: RE: Somalia

Sean,

Kaitlyn McClure will be reaching out to you to set up a meeting.

Thanks,

Don Larson

From: Sean King [<mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com>]

Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 1:04 PM

To: Larson, Don (Hoeven)

Cc: JOHN ZAGAME; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra

Subject: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Don,

Hi, how are you? Thanks again for your last time last month on Taiwan. Just so you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

As I'm sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself (please see the Prime Minister's bio attached), are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Next Wednesday, April 6th, my colleague, John Zagame, and I will be in Washington, D.C. with Abukar Arman. Ambassador Arman is Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States. Before accepting his current position, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

Could John and I possibly stop by next Wednesday, April 6th to briefly introduce the appropriate staff member in your office to Ambassador Arman? I'm sure Senator Hoeven can benefit from what you and/or your colleague(s) might be able to tell him after a meeting with Ambassador Arman. Thanks for any time your office can afford us, and thanks in advance for your kind consideration. We hope to spend some time with you soon.

Best wishes,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com

101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA

(+1 (212) 883-5608|+1 (212) 883-5643 |*sking@parkstrategies.com
<mailto:%7C*sking@parkstrategies.com>

Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.

(+886 (2) 7711-1020|+886 (2) 7711-7288

Reg No. 5908

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Thursday, April 07, 2011 12:40 PM
To: Catella, Jim (Snowe)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME
Subject: RE: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Thanks, Jim. We'll see you next time. By copy of this e-mail, I'm asking that my colleague, John Zagame, send you any relevant materials. As you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia. Thanks again.

From: Catella, Jim (Snowe) [mailto:Jim_Catella@snowe.senate.gov]
Sent: Wednesday, April 06, 2011 4:06 PM
To: Sean King
Subject: RE: Somalia

Sean – Thanks for your email. Yes, I took Dylan's place about a year and a half ago and look forward to working with you.

Unfortunately, as you know, the Senate schedule is very tight right now but please stay in touch with me on these issues. Thanks

Jim Catella
Office of Senator Olympia J. Snowe
154 Russell Building
Washington, DC 20510
(202) 224-5344

ND/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT
2011 APR 25 AM 9:20

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Thursday, April 07, 2011 12:40 PM
To: Valerie Levin
Subject: FW: Thanks

-----Original Message-----

From: Sean King
Sent: Thursday, April 07, 2011 12:37 PM
To: 'McClure, Kaitlyn (Hoeven)'
Cc: 'Larson, Don (Hoeven)'; 'JOHN ZAGAME'
Subject: Thanks

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Kaitlyn,

My colleague, John Zagame, will be following up with you on some of the matters we discussed yesterday. But I just wanted to thank you again for yesterday, and let you know how much we appreciate it.

As you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

Best wishes,
Sean King

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia.
Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."

Valerie Levin

From: LaShaun Lesley
Sent: Monday, March 14, 2011 3:31 PM
To: Valerie Levin
Subject: FW: meeting w/ Congressman Engel

From: LaShaun Lesley
Sent: Monday, March 14, 2011 3:30 PM
To: 'Estler, Heather'
Subject: RE: meeting w/ Congressman Engel

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

I have to inform you that Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

Hello Heather,

Okay, thank you for your efforts.

LaShaun

From: Estler, Heather [<mailto:Heather.Estler@mail.house.gov>]
Sent: Monday, March 14, 2011 3:20 PM
To: LaShaun Lesley
Subject: meeting w/ Congressman Engel

I'm very sorry, Jason does not have time to meet with Prime Minister Mohamed A. Mohamed. Perhaps another time, thank you!

Heather Estler
Office Manager & Scheduler
Office of Congressman Eliot L. Engel (NY - 17)
2161 Rayburn HOB
Washington, DC 20515
Ph: 202-225-2464
Fx: 202-225-5513

From: LaShaun Lesley [<mailto:LLesley@parkstrategies.com>]
Sent: Monday, March 14, 2011 2:15 PM
To: Estler, Heather
Subject: Meeting with Prime Minister of Somalia Mohamed

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

NSD/CES/REGISTRATION
UNIT
2011 MAR 24 PM 3:31

Good afternoon Heather,

To begin I have to inform you that Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

Ms. Heather, I would like to secure a brief 10 minute meeting for the Prime Minister of Somalia, Mohamed A. Mohamed. The purpose of the meeting is to introduce the PM to Congressman Engel and/or legislative staffers, to give an update on the transitioning government and issues concerning the country such as terrorism and piracy. Two members of the Park Strategies team and the Prime Minister would like to meet with the Congressman between 12- 2pm and 4-6pm, today. Any availability that you have would be appreciated.

Best Regards,

LaShaun

LaShaun Lesley
Park Strategies, LLC
101 Park Avenue, Suite 2506
New York, NY 10178
212 883-5608

Subject: Purpose of Meeting

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Good morning Darlene,

To begin I have to inform you that Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

Per your request, the purpose of the meeting is to introduce Congressman Payne to the Prime Minister of Somali and to give him an update on the transitional government and current issues concerning the country (terrorism, piracy etc.). As I mentioned in our conversation this morning, I believe that a Special Envoy may come in place of Prime Minister Mohammed.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. Thanks for your help with this.

Regards,

LaShaun

LaShaun Lesley

Park Strategies, LLC

101 Park Avenue, Suite 2506

New York, NY 10178

212 883-5608

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia.
Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia.
Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia.
Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia.
Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia.
Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 5:03 PM
To: 'Nathaniel_Lutovsky@conrad.senate.gov'; 'jzagameny@msn.com'
Subject: Re: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.
Dear Nathaniel,

Thanks for your quick reply, and I'm always doing what I can to tout North Dakota (cold, or not!).

I'll ask that my colleague, John Zagame (whom I've copied here), send you any relevant Somalia materials that he thinks may be worth your while.

Please also let John know if you have any free slots on either Tuesday or Thursday, as he'll be in D.C. with Ambassador Arman on Tuesday-Wednesday. It's only I who's only there on Wednesday.

Thanks again, be well.

Best wishes,
Sean King

----- Original Message -----

From: Lutovsky, Nathaniel (Conrad) <Nathaniel_Lutovsky@conrad.senate.gov>
To: Sean King
Sent: Wed Mar 30 16:31:29 2011
Subject: RE: Somalia

Sean,

Thanks for the message. I had to laugh when I read the last phrase in the article about Fargo that you sent warning about the cold winter temperatures!

I won't be able to meet on the 6th. However, if you want to send me any materials regarding Somalia or the TFG I would be happy to review them.

Hope all is well,

Nathaniel

From: Sean King [<mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com>]
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 12:47 PM
To: Lutovsky, Nathaniel (Conrad)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Subject: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Nathaniel,

Hi, how are you? Thanks again for your last time last month on Taiwan. Just so you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

As I'm sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself (please see the Prime Minister's bio attached), are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Next Wednesday, April 6th, my colleague, John Zagame, and I will be in Washington, D.C. with Abukar Arman. Ambassador Arman is Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States. Before accepting his current position, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

Could John and I possibly stop by next Wednesday, April 6th to briefly introduce you to Ambassador Arman? As a member of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, I'm sure Senator Conrad can benefit from what you might be able to tell him after you meet Ambassador Arman. Thanks for any time you can afford us, and thanks in advance for your kind consideration. We hope to spend some time with you soon.

Best wishes,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com

101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA

(+1 (212) 883-5608|+1 (212) 883-5643 |*sking@parkstrategies.com
<mailto:%7C*sking@parkstrategies.com>

Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.

(+886 (2) 7711-1020|+886 (2) 7711-7288

Valerie Levin

From: Sean King
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 7:46 PM
To: 'don_larson@hoeven.senate.gov'
Subject: Re: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.
Thanks so much, Don.

----- Original Message -----

From: Larson, Don (Hoeven) <Don_Larson@hoeven.senate.gov>
To: Sean King
Sent: Wed Mar 30 19:35:41 2011
Subject: RE: Somalia

Sean,

Kaitlyn McClure will be reaching out to you to set up a meeting.

Thanks,

Don Larson

From: Sean King [<mailto:sking@parkstrategies.com>]
Sent: Wednesday, March 30, 2011 1:04 PM
To: Larson, Don (Hoeven)
Cc: JOHN ZAGAME; Kraig Siracuse; Joel Giambra
Subject: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Dear Don,

Hi, how are you? Thanks again for your last time last month on Taiwan. Just so you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are also registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

As I'm sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself (please see the Prime Minister's bio attached), are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Next Wednesday, April 6th, my colleague, John Zagame, and I will be in Washington, D.C. with Abukar Arman. Ambassador Arman is Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States. Before accepting his current position, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

Could John and I possibly stop by next Wednesday, April 6th to briefly introduce the appropriate staff member in your office to Ambassador Arman? I'm sure Senator Hoeven can benefit from what you and/or your colleague(s) might be able to tell him after a meeting with Ambassador Arman. Thanks for any time your office can afford us, and thanks in advance for your kind consideration. We hope to spend some time with you soon.

Best wishes,

Sean King | Park Strategies | www.parkstrategies.com

101 Park Avenue | New York, NY 10178 | USA

(+1 (212) 883-5608|+1 (212) 883-5643 | *sking@parkstrategies.com
<mailto:%7C*sking@parkstrategies.com>

Suite 211, 2F, #97, Dunhua S. Rd., Sec. 2 | Taipei | Taiwan, R.O.C.

(+886 (2) 7711-1020|+886 (2) 7711-7288

Valerie Levin

From: Joel Giambra
Sent: Thursday, March 31, 2011 3:35 PM
To: Sam Hoyt (sam@samhoyt.com)
Subject: Somalia

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Hi Sam,

I need your assistance in arranging for Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States, Abukar Arman, to meet with Senator Gillibrand, while he is in D.C. next week, April 5, 6 and 7th. We would like to see the Senator and her staff person on Foreign Relations if possible. Before Ambassador Arman became Special Envoy to the United States, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

As you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia. I am sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself, are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Thanks Joel.

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."

Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed

On October 14, 2010, Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed was appointed the new Prime Minister of Somalia by the country's President. The Somali Parliament overwhelmingly approved Mohamed's appointment on October 31, 2010. 297 of the 392 Members of Parliament endorsed the selection, 92 MPs voted against, and 3 abstained.

Political analysts who have weighed in on the selection have generally expressed optimism in Mohamed's prospects of fulfilling his duties as Prime Minister in the face of an obstinate insurgency in the southern part of the country. Factors cited include Mohamed's background in the Somali Diaspora; his lack of political baggage; his diplomatic and administrative experience; his commitment to democratic principles; his relatively young age; and the fresh perspective he brings to his office by which he aims to generate greater public support for the government among Somalia's beleaguered people.

United Nations General Ban Ki-Moon personally congratulated Mohamed on his new appointment, and commended the Somali leadership for having reached a consensus on procedural arrangements that facilitated a transparent and consultative confirmation of the Premier. The African Union also welcomed the new Prime Minister and re-affirmed the AU's support for the Somali government.

On November 1, 2010, Mohamed was sworn into office at a ceremony held in the presidential residence, Villa Somalia.

On November 12, 2010, Mohamed named a new Cabinet. He noted that "the Somali people and the international community were waiting for a competent and credible Somali cabinet, and I am happy to appoint this lean, capable cabinet." The ministerial positions were significantly reduced in number, with only 18 administrative posts versus the previous government's bloated 39 positions. Only two Ministers from the previous Cabinet were reappointed. The remaining ministerial positions were largely assigned to technocrats new to the Somali political arena.

War on Terror and Piracy

Since taking office Prime Minister Mohamed has concentrated on building the basic institutions of government and "fighting a two-front war against terrorism and piracy." The Al Shabab terrorist organization, with its close links to Al Qaeda, has been targeted with greater urgency and military effectiveness. In recent weeks, significant progress has been made on the ground in Somalia against Al Shabab by the new government and the allied African Union Mission for Somalia (AMISOM), securing greater government control of the Capital Mogadishu and gaining territory on a number of fronts across the country. With almost a thousand newly-trained government troops on the way, set to be augmented by an additional 4000 AMISOM soldiers, the pace of territorial gains is expected to accelerate.

This material is distributed by Park Strategies, LLC on behalf of the Republic of Somalia.
Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C.

Reforms

In its first 50 days in office, members of the Independent Constitutional Commission were appointed to engage Somali constitutional lawyers, religious scholars and experts in Somali culture over the nation's upcoming new constitution, a key part of the government's Transitional Federal Tasks.

To improve transparency, Cabinet ministers were required to fully disclose their assets and signed a code of ethics. An Anti-Corruption Commission with the power to carry out formal investigations and to review government decisions and protocols was established so as to more closely monitor all activities by public officials. A budget outlining 2011's federal expenditures was also put before and approved by members of parliament, with the payment of civil service employees prioritized. In addition, a full audit of government property and vehicles is being put into place.

Personal life

Mohamed was born in Mogadishu Somalia in 1962, and holds both Somali and American citizenship. He is married to Zeinab Moallim, with whom he has four children; two sons and two daughters, aged 7 to 19.

Education

Mohamed was educated in the United States at the State University of New York at Buffalo. In 1993, he completed a Bachelor's Degree in history. In 2009 he received a Master's Degree in Political Science (American Studies). His dissertation was titled: "U.S. Strategic Interest in Somalia: From the Cold War Era to the War on Terror."